Bauma Show Only Munich, Germany 5-day Tour

April 22 - 26, 2007 or April 26 - April 30, 2007

Over 416,000 visitors attended Bauma 2004.

Don't be disappointed by waiting too long to plan for Bauma 2007.

With a population of nearly 1.5 million people and a large number of museums, art collections, music and theatre events, the Bavarian capital of Munich is a cultural metropolis of international rank. Landmarks of the city include the central Marienplatz, the Old Town Hall, Glockenspiel, Alter Peter, Nymphenburg Palace, the Olympic Stadium and, of course, the Bavarian Motor Works or BMW.

One of the most appealing aspects of Munich is the splendid countryside right on the city's doorstep: the Bavarian Lake Region amidst the stunning Bavarian Alps; Neuschwanstein and Linderhof, two of King Ludwig's 11 castles; Oberammergau, home to the Passion Play Garmish at the foot of Germany's highest mountain, Mittenwald, enjoying the most spectacular location of any town in the Alps; Berchtesgaden, home to Hitler's headquarters known as the Eagle's Nest; and Salzbergwerk, home to the salt mine, just to mention a few.
