

World Youth Day 2008, Sydney, Australia Accommodation

Mercure Hotel Sydney

A warm and friendly welcome awaits you at the Mercure Sydney, located right in the heart of Sydney's entertainment district and next to Central Station, the city's major transport hub - a perfect place from which to explore all the Sydney's major tourist attractions. The Capital Theatre, Chinatown, Darling Harbour and the Sydney Entertainment Centre are all within easy walking distance.

The Mercure Hotel Sydney offers you all the modern facilities you would expect of four-star accommodation, including two restaurants and a rooftop indoor swimming pool and gym.

The hotel was built in 1998 and completely refurbished in 2005. There is an open concept atrium on every second floor, opening to the floor above, an ideal area for mass or meetings and a large outdoor terrace for group activities. There is also a separate group check-in area on the main level suitable for group gatherings. A nice property and an excellent location.
