Located on the fringe of Darling Harbor, the Mercure Hotel Ultimo Sydney is a charming boutique hotel offering guests a comfortable and peaceful stay. The hotel is conveniently located close to the Sydney Entertainment Centre, Chinatown, the Sydney Convention and Exhibition Centre, shops and restaurants, the Powerhouse Museum, the Haymarket Monorail and city transit systems.

Situated in a quiet street, the Mercure Hotel Ultimo Sydney has 96 spacious guestrooms, all with balconies and air conditioning. The in-house Henry's Restaurant offers superb modern cuisine and fine Australian wines.

This hotel is being totally refurbished in 2006 with a new look inside and out; the photos below will be replaced when renovations are complete.
