Day 1: Quebec City

There is within most of us a searching or longing, a reason for being, a need to be in touch with our spirituality, what we are and why we are. For this reason people have always traveled on pilgrimage to various places of worship. Most of us continue to seek out a place of peace, an oasis where we can renew our heart, soul and spirit. Today we join together on our coach as we travel to Quebec City for the Youth Summit Conference. We spend five nights at the Lindbergh Hôtel, a three-star hotel with 123 rooms located across the street from the principal shopping centre and a few minutes from the downtown area.

Days 2 - 5: Quebec City

Breakfast is included each morning. Full day by day details of the Youth Summit are not available until the fall of 2007; however, we will be attending the events around this gathering during these days.

Included during these four days will be a guided half-day tour of historic Quebec City, the only walled city within North America. The Plains of Abraham, the Citadel, the Quebec Provincial Legislature and a walk through Old Quebec will all be part of our sightseeing adventure as well as a day trip to Ste. Anne de Beaupré, the largest shrine to Ste. Anne in the world and the oldest shrine in Canada, dating back to the 17th-century. It is famous internationally and receives more than a million and a half visitors every year. Take time to visit the statue of Ste. Anne, the old chapel across the road and the Way of the Cross. One set of steps up the hillside leads to the convent of the Franciscan Sisters. Their chapel is always open for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. They have a small handicraft shop to support their missions.

Day 6: Home

And so, after breakfast, we leave this beautiful place and make our way homeward to Ontario. We know you will have enjoyed this spiritual journey and thank you for joining us on this special pilgrimage.
