Day Two: Thursday, April 11, 2013

Cincinnati

We spend the day at the Quilt Show today. Overnight Drury Inn & Suites Cincinnati North.

Day Three: Friday, April 12, 2013

Cincinnati

Once again we spend the day at the Quilt Show and then in the late afternoon something a little different as we do a walking tour of the underground area of Cincinnati called "Queen City Underground: Bosses, Brewery's and Burials". You will learn about the characters and events that shaped Cincinnati from the 1810's to the 1950's. Gels said it is not a crime tour, but tells the story of Over-the-Rhine and the people who shaped Cincinnati. Still standing are over buildings that the tour incorporates for instance where Wild Bill Hickok and where Charlie Chaplain used to perform. Followed by dinner this evening included in the tour cost

Day Four: Saturday, April 13, 2013

Dayton

Today, we will be starting home and have a more leisurely trip stopping at Joanne's Fabric Shop, Kohl's, Target, and Wal-Mart for some shopping and browsing. If the group wishes to return to the Quilt Show in the morning we can accommodate that as well. We will be spending the night in Dayton, Ohio.

Day Five: Sunday, April 14, 2013
